

Winning against all odds

The stage had a unique setting as pictures drawn by the children were shown on an LCD screen while the children performed. The songs had themes varying from drug abuse and caste distinctions to the life of a less privileged child and the courage exhibited by the specially-abled. After the performance, participants were given a standing ovation by the audience followed by certificates of honour. Speaking about these children, Abhijit Das Gupta, the secretary of Sukriti Foundation said that one has a lot to learn from such children who have overcome their deficiencies and honed their skills without fear or hesitation.

sung by 13 under privileged children. Singers Surojit Chatterjee, Anindyo Chatterjee, Sidhu, Rupankar and Neel Dutta have sung the title track of the album along with the children. The dance performance was choreographed by Sonya Ghosal and Arnab Bandopadhyay.

Our Correspondent

Kolkata Sukriti Foundation and the Lions Club International came together to explore the talents of specially-abled and less privileged children. They organised a programme titled Beyond Belief through which these children were provided a platform to showcase their skills. Beyond Belief comprised a dance performance by specially-abled children. The songs to which they performed were taken from an unreleased album titled Condition Free which is composed by Rupam Islam. The songs in the album are